

Midstar acquires Best Western Plus Sthlm Bromma

Midstar Hotels acquires Best Western Plus Sthlm Bromma from Concentus i Kalix Holding AB. The hotel is located adjacent to the Bromma airport terminal. The hotel with its 202 rooms have 15 conference rooms, bar, restaurant, gym and sauna.

The historical property containing Best Western Plus Sthlm Bromma was originally the SAS head office and was converted into a full-service hotel in 2010 after a major renovation and refurbishment.

Bromma Airport is Sweden's third largest airport and the area around Bromma Airport is continuously developing including a metro connection next to the hotel and the airport that will be ready in late 2020.

"We have great faith in Swedavia and their development of Bromma Airport as well as the surrounding area including Bromma Blocks. We are excited about our first acquisition within the Stockholm region which is very much in line with our long-term strategy," says Ola Stendebakken, Partner at Midstar.

Assisting Midstar in the transaction was Advokatfirman Cederquist, Svalner and WSP. Catella Corporate Finance and Advokatbyrån Kaiding assisted the vendor Concentus.
